

Senior Design Engineer—Controls

Our company is seeking a Senior Design Engineer to further the development and sale of new and existing products, including: Engineering of ice machines; Maintain current working knowledge of A-B Control Logix, A-8 Compact Logix, Mitsubishi, and Automation Direct PLC, VFD and related hardware and programming; Knowledge of SolidWorks; Communication with other departments including: Sales, Materials, Production and Accounting; Ensure product drawings and bills of materials are up to date; Communication with customers and vendors; Ensure compliance with customer requirements, standards, and codes; Communication with outside vendors who supply equipment; Development of departmental standards and procedures; Technical development, maintenance, and improvements of all products; Design, detail, and manage changes and updates to new and existing control panels; Support production, sales, and customers as the lead controls engineer over Vogt and Turbo Products; and, Special quotes management, as assigned. 40 hrs/wk. Send resume to ttracy@vogtice.com. EOE. No calls please.